

New Driver Contract

____ I, _____, fully understand that driving a family car is a great privilege filled with responsibility, and can be withdrawn at any time. I am excited to drive and accept the responsibilities and consequences that come with this privilege.

____ I will let you know any time I leave. I will even tell you where I am going and my expected time of return. If, for any reason, I will not be home at my estimated time, I will shoot you a text or give you a call to calm your fears that I've been abducted by aliens.

____ When I arrive home, I will greet you in person so you can look me in the eye (and even smell my breath!)

____ In the off chance I am pulled over by a police officer, or receive a ticket in the mail, I will in no way, shape or form ask, suggest, or even hint that anyone other than myself should pay for said ticket.

____ You will be paying $_____ annually to insure my driving. If my rates go up due to negligence (an accident, tickets or any fault of my own), I will pay the difference, and I'll pay for any damages not covered by insurance.

____ You will provide the gas to get me back and forth to school each day. I will be responsible to pay for gas when galavanting about alone or with friends.

____ Speaking of friends, I hereby declare I will only allow (1) non-family member in the car for (____) months, according to _____ law. I will ask permission to transport friends and insist that they ask their parents permission to ride with me as well.

____ This is my car to drive and never would I ever let a friend or anyone other than family drive the vehicle that has been entrusted to me.

____ Talking on a cell phone or texting while driving is dangerous and just plain stupid. I will not do that. Ever. Like never ever.

____ Driving while under the influence is incredibly ignorant and life-threatening too. I don't want to die so I won't do it. I also would never ride in a vehicle where the driver is impaired. I will call my awesome, kind and loving parents (or Uber) if I EVER find myself in such a predicament.

____ Road conditions contribute to my speed. I understand that I may need to drive UNDER the posted speed limit if road conditions dictate. Examples of this may be crazy rain, dense fog, snow, ice and a Zombie Apocalypse.

____ My vehicle will be kept reasonably clean on the inside and out by none other than myself. I can wash a car like nobody's business and I know how to vacuum the inside.

____ I will pay attention to the needs of my car and let you know when regular maintenance is warranted. I'm thrilled that you are willing to split the maintenance of the vehicle I drive.

____ If I chose to break a rule, I understand that my driving privileges will be revoked.

____ As a matter of fact, I understand that my right to drive may be withdrawn at any time, for any reason.

____ My parents ROCK! I am ecstatic they are giving me the resources to drive and I am incredibly grateful! I will show my gratitude by continuing to take school seriously working hard to make great grades!
